Level 2

Day №22

Do you think that international relationships could work?

Is love enough to make any relationship work? Are these things big problems or not?
Mark your answers.

Imagine: the person I love...	A big problem	A small problem	No problem!
comes from a different country.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/> doesn't get along with my family.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/> doesn't have a job.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/> doesn't speak my language well.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/> doesn't agree about having children.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/> is ten years older than me.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/> doesn't share the same interests as me.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/> doesn't have the same ideas about money as me.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
my idea:	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>

Obstacles and challenges for International marriages

Some of the problems these relationships face include:

- Language barrier
- Differences in values
- Religious conflicts
- Gender expectations
- Handling finances
- Fear of abandonment by family, friends, spouse
- Political issues

How can these issues affect a relationship?

A: What if the person you love comes from a different country?

B: That's definitely a problem because communication is more difficult.

Your boyfriend is from the United States and he wants you to go to the US with him. However you're very close to your family and can't bear to be far away from them. What will you do?

The easiest part was falling in love with you...

The hardest part is being away from you...
