There are so many different types!

Most pizzas have tomatoes and cheese but there are more than a hundred other things you can put on a pizza! Some people like them with beef or chicken, some with seafood, other like pineapple on their pizzas! Which type do you like?

People like pizzas because they come in many different sizes. You can get a big pizza or buy a small piece if you are not very hungry. You can eat them in a normal restaurant or a special pizza restaurant (a pizzeria), you can eat them in the street, or you can phone a takeaway and they bring a hot pizza to your house in a box. There are thousands of pizza restaurants all over the world. But where does pizza come from?

Well, the original pizza restaurant is in the Naples, Italy. It's name is Antica Pizzeria Port'Alba. It's 200 years old and, of course, they cook their pizzas the old Italian way. It's still open and you can go in there today and enjoy a fantastic pizza!
