Day №12

What do you think is going on here?

How often do you take a taxi?

How do you tell the driver where you are going?

Day 12: Telling the driver your destination

Dialogue 1: When you have an address

Dialogue 2: When you have no specific destination

Dialogue 3: When you forgot your destination

Dialogue 4: When you don't know where to go

Dialogue 1: When you have an address

A: Where can I take you?

B: Take me to this address, please.

A: Let me see. Raphael Square? I've never heard of this place. Do you know the way there?

B: No. I don't even know how to pronounce it. That's why I wrote it down. I heard that this place is close to C & A Building.

A: C&A Building? The one with the large bear statue?

B: Yes. That's it!

A: Okay, I'll take you there. Don't worry.

Dialogue 2: When you have no specific destination

A: Where can I take you, ma'am?

B: Anywhere in New York, please.

A: Excuse me? I can't accept that as a destination, I'm afraid.

B: Why not? I'm new here. And I'm extremely excited. Anywhere would suit me if it's New York.

A: You seem like you're really in love with the city.

B: Yes. Ever since I was a kid, I had always dreamed of being a New Yorker.

A: Well, how does Central Park sound to you? It represents New York, you know.

B: Central Park it is.

A: Okay, ma'am.

Dialogue 3: When you forgot your destination

A: Where can I take you?

B: I am going to ... Oh I can't remember the name of the place!

A: Is it just around here?

B: Yes, just around New York.

A: Can you tell me any landmark?

B: Actually, it is a famous building.

A: Well, is it the Empire State Building?

B: Yes, that's it!

A: Okay, ma'am.

Dialogue 4: When you don't know where to go

A: Where can I take you, ma'am?

B: Mmm.. What do you recommend?

A: Are you new here?

B: Yes, I am. I am here for a holiday.

A: You seem like you like it here.

B: Yes. So what is nearest spot that I can go to?

A: Well, how Time Square sound to you?

B: Sounds like fun! Let's go!

A: Okay, ma'am.
