Has this ever happened to you ?

I'm late for a meeting!

Oh, no! Look at the time!

Day 19: REQUESTING A WAKE-UP CALL

Dialogue 1:

Asking for a wake up call

Dialogue 2:

Asking for a wake up call for a group

Dialogue 3:

Asking for 2 wake up calls in a row

Dialogue 4:

When there's an alarm clock in your room

Dialogue 1: Asking for a wake up call

A: This is the front desk.

B: Hi, this is room 201.

A: Hi. How can I help you?

B: I'd like a wake-up call tomorrow morning.

A: Sure. What time do you want the call?

B: 6 a.m. would be great.

A: OK. I'll call you then.

B: Thank you. Bye.

Dialogue 2: Asking for a wake up call for a group

A: Front desk. How can I help you?

B: My friends and I need a wake-up call tomorrow morning.

A: Are there other rooms that need the call?

B: Yes. All of the members that arrived this evening.

A: Oh, the Korean group consisting of 13 people?

B: That's right.

A: What time do you want the call?

B: 5:30 a.m. would be great.

A: Okay, I will call all of you then.

Dialogue 3: Asking for 2 wake up calls in a row

A: This is the front desk.

B: Hello, this is room 205.

A: Hi, what can I do for you?

B: I need a wake-up call tomorrow morning. I have a very important meeting early in the morning, so I have to get up early. But I'm afraid I won't be able to get up with just one wake-up call. So can you give me two wake-up calls?

A: Sure, what time do you want the calls?

B: At 6 and 6:10 please.

A: OK, you will get two calls tomorrow morning. One at six and the other at six ten.

Dialogue 4: When there's an alarm clock in your room

A: Hello, how may I help you?

B: Hi, can I have a wake-up call tomorrow morning?

A: You can set the alarm clock in your room.

B: Alarm clock? Where is it?

A: It's on the bedside table.

B: Oh! I've found it. Can I set two different wake up call times?

A: Of course, you can.

B: Great! Thank you.
